

Information sheet for research project “Public Knowledge and Perceptions of the UK Judiciary”

1. Introduction

You have been invited to take part in the research project “Public Knowledge and Perceptions of the UK Judiciary” because you responded to the invitation prolifically.

Participation in this research project is voluntary: the decision to take part is yours. Before you decide to participate, we would like to ask you to read the following information so that you know what the research project is about, what we expect from you, and how we process your personal data. Based on this information, you can indicate via the consent declaration whether you consent to take part in this research project and the processing of your personal data.

2. Purpose of the research

This research project will be managed by Veerle van der Zanden and Niek Geerts and supervised by Gerrit Rooks, PhD. The purpose of this research project is to investigate your knowledge and perception of the UK judiciary.

3. Controller in the sense of the GDPR

TU/e is responsible for processing your personal data within the scope of the research. The contact details of TU/e are:

Technische Universiteit Eindhoven
De Groene Loper 3

4. What will taking part in the research project involve?

You will be taking part in a research project in which we will gather information by:

- Provide you with basic knowledge of the UK judiciary.
- Interviewing you about your perceptions of the UK judiciary.

Participation will take no more than 10 minutes. For your participation in this research project, you will receive XX euros as a token of our appreciation.

5. Potential risks and inconveniences

There are no risks involved in this research project. Your participation is voluntary, and you can end your participation at any moment you choose. None of this will have any negative consequences for you whatsoever.

6. What personal data from you do we gather and process?

Within the framework of the research project we process the following personal data:

Category	Personal data
Contact data	Age, biological sex, educational level

7. Confidentiality, use, and storage of data

We will do everything we can to protect your privacy as best as possible. The research results that will be published will not in any way contain confidential information or personal data from or about you through which anyone can recognize you.

The personal data that were gathered will be stored on an encrypted server of the Human Technology Interaction group. The raw and processed research data will be retained for a period of 10 years. The research data will, if necessary (e.g. for a check on scientific integrity) and only in anonymous form be made available to persons outside the research group.

8. Withdrawing your consent and contact details

Participation in this research project is entirely voluntary. You may end your participation in the research project at any moment, or withdraw your consent to using your data for the research, without specifying any reason. Ending your participation will have no disadvantageous consequences for you.

Do you wish to end the research, or do you have any questions and/or complaints? Then please contact the researcher via v.d.v.d.zanden@student.tue.nl or n.geerts@student.tue.nl.

9. Legal ground for processing your personal data

The legal basis upon which we process your data is consent.

This research project was assessed and approved by the ethical review committee of the HTI group of the Eindhoven University of Technology.
